hand to test the shaky hands when the booze kicks in.

If you are determined to live like an Austrian for a week the next stop has to be the hotel sauna, but local custom demands that only your dignity is to be worn in saunas – so be warned!

Food in Soll's hotels tends to adequate without being spectacular, but the Hotel Gansleit and Hotel Feldwebel buck that trend with top quality cuisine.

The Whiskey Muhle night-club is the hot-spot for youthful party goers, with the little bar next door a great spot to catch a sporting event.

All the Premier League games are shown in Soll's numerous bars. And the Innsbruck Olympic toboggan run offers a thrilling night out.

It may be best not to drink too much Landbier before you are hurled down the icy run that gets the hairs on the back of the neck standing tall.
